

Seger among the best

In Finland only minor part of the companies is granted the status in lowest credit rating risk level. According to internationally known Dun & Bradstreet Seger Oy is one of them. D&B has classified Finnish companies for their creditability since 1993.

There are total of four risk levels. In order to reach the lowest one (risk level 1), the company must have better than average financial figures, positive background and positive payment status. D&B operates in granting the risk level status in more than 200 countries.

Seger Oy, VAT FI08841293, DUNS 539940262